FROM: Deputy Director for Plans

SUBJECT: GOLUB, Eugeniusz

1. Reference is made to request dated 26 August 1968 concerning Subject.

2. According to a report dated 13 November 1953, a source of unknown reliability reported that one Eugeniusz GOLUB, born circa 1918 or 1920, was an agent of the British Intelligence Service in the Moorfleet Camp in Hamburg, West Germany, where he was carrying out "observations" of various people. Source described GOLUB as small, as rather bent, as having black hair, and as suffering from tuberculosis. Source indicated that GOLUB was a fairly heavy drinker. According to Source, GOLUB was a friend and helper of one Stanislaw JANCZUR, also an agent of the British Intelligence Service, who was vice chairman of the district committee of the Union of Polish Refugees in the Moorfleet Camp. Source indicated that GOLUB and JANCZUR often frequented the "Irish Bar" on Hopfenstrasse, in Hamburg, where they approached Polish seamen. Because GOLUB and JANCZUR were lax on security, they were commonly regarded as spies, and the Polish seamen ceased frequenting the "Irish Bar" in great numbers.

3. Information dated 1 April 1963 indicated that a Western Intelligence Service's interest in Subject was possibly compromised to the Soviet Intelligence Service by Hans FELFE, a former West German Intelligence Service officer who had been co-opted by the Soviet Intelligence Service.
